

Practera Modern Slavery Policy

Guidelines for employees and contractors to meet workplace standards

Prepared By: Suzy Watson, COO
Date Created: 25 Mar 2022
Version: v 1.2
Replaces: n/a
Reviewers: Beau Leese, CEO
Classification: Intersective Proprietary and its subsidiaries

At Practera, we are committed to upholding human rights and preventing modern slavery in all its forms. This Modern Slavery Policy outlines our commitment to eradicating modern slavery, including forced labour, human trafficking, and other forms of exploitation. This policy applies to all our operations globally and extends to our supply chains, partners, and subcontractors. We recognize that modern slavery is a pressing global issue and we are dedicated to taking proactive steps to address and prevent it.

1. Compliance with Applicable Laws:

We will comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to modern slavery in the countries where we operate. Our commitment goes beyond legal compliance to ensure the highest ethical standards in our business practices. We consider the Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth) in Australia, Modern Slavery Act 2015 in the United Kingdom and United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights in other Jurisdictions.

2. Risk Assessment and Due Diligence:

We will conduct regular risk assessments to identify and evaluate the potential risks of modern slavery within our operations and supply chains. This includes reviewing our business relationships, partnerships, and sourcing practices to identify areas of potential vulnerability.

3. Supplier and Partner Relationships:

We will work closely with our suppliers and partners to ensure they share our commitment to combat modern slavery. We will assess their compliance with applicable laws and ethical standards, and encourage them to adopt and enforce their own policies against modern slavery.

4. Employee Awareness and Training:

We will provide appropriate training and awareness programs to our employees to ensure they understand the risks and signs of modern slavery. This will empower them to identify and report any concerns they may have, fostering a culture of vigilance and accountability.

5. Whistleblower Protection:

We will establish effective channels for employees, suppliers, customers, and other stakeholders to report any suspected cases of modern slavery confidentially. We are committed to protecting whistleblowers from retaliation and will promptly investigate any reported concerns.

6. Continuous Improvement:

We are dedicated to continuous improvement and will regularly review and enhance our policies, procedures, and practices to address emerging risks and challenges related to modern slavery. We will engage with industry initiatives, stakeholders, and experts to stay informed about best practices.

7. Transparency and Reporting:

We will be transparent in our efforts to combat modern slavery. We will publish an annual Modern Slavery Statement that provides information about our policies, activities, and progress in tackling modern slavery. This statement will be available on our website and communicated to relevant stakeholders.

8. Collaboration and Advocacy:

We will actively collaborate with industry peers, non-governmental organizations, and other stakeholders to drive collective action against modern slavery. We will support initiatives and campaigns aimed at eradicating modern slavery and raise awareness about this issue.

9. Governance and Accountability:

Responsibility for our modern slavery policy rests with senior management. We will establish appropriate governance structures to ensure accountability, oversight, and regular reporting on the implementation of this policy.

10. Experiential Learning

Authentic Learning experiences have some risk of exploitation. Its stipulated in the program Code of Conduct for any Practera managed Program, that participants will not request, require, undertake or accept work or activity as part of or connected to this Program that;

- Is likely to violate their human rights or those of another participant (including amounting to a form of Modern Slavery – understood, at a minimum, as those expressed in the International Bill of Human Rights and the principles concerning fundamental rights set out in the International Labour Organization’s Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.
- Is likely to be in breach Australia’s Fair Work Act or United Kingdom’s Employment Rights Act 1996, including requesting or accepting unpaid work or activity beyond the scope and duration of the agreed learning experience to the extent that an effective employment relationship is formed, WITHOUT an employment contract including payment at or above minimum wage, leave, superannuation or pensions and other entitlements being executed between employer and employee.

We recognize that eradicating modern slavery requires a collective effort. By adhering to this policy and working together, we aim to contribute to a world free from modern slavery.

This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure its ongoing relevance and effectiveness.

Review and Maintenance of this policy

This policy will be reviewed on an annual basis by the COO, Suzy Watson, no later than the outstanding Review Date, and recorded below:

| Review Date | Reviewers | Changes Logged          |
|-------------|-----------|-------------------------|
| 29 Mar 2023 | S Watson  | Document created        |
| 14 Mar 2024 | S Watson  | Minor edits for clarity |

End of Document